Figure 3 is a diagram of a network architecture. The diagram shows a central cloud labeled "Network 320". Surrounding the network are several entities: "Agents/Brokers 302", "Policyholders 304", "Reinsurers/Licensees 306", "Visitors 308", "Strategic Marketing Partners 310", "Content Providers 312", and "Suppliers 314". Below the network, within a dashed box labeled "Company 340", are a "Bank Lock Box 346", a "Central Data Center 344", and a "Web Portal 342". To the right of the network is a group of "Aligned Providers 330". Arrows indicate bidirectional communication between the network and each of these entities.
